Then the band switched to Marching Through Georgia and a medley of popular airs and the aisses became so blocked that no one moved for several minutes. While the marchers stood still in the jam they kept up the din and after it had been moing on an hour George W. Perkins left the stage and decided to go to his hotel and wait for it subside. The Michigan delagation tramped in from the rain outside and their leaders demanded another outdoor demonstration.

Roosevelt Demonstrators Unchecked

"Teddy is not afraid of the rain" they shouted, "Get out and march" and in a body they filed from the hall into the deluge outside chanting "Teddy, you're a bear" some of the delegates returned in their sogry garments with banners and flags bedvaggled and dripping, but their enthusiasm was not dampened, for they joined the marching, roaring throng again.

Summer Colds Weaken

They are even more dangerous than winter colds, for they hang on so long that they become chronic catarrh. Heat and dust aggravate them, cause the infected surface to spread, and fill the body with systemic catarrh. Neglect costs health and energy.

PERUNA EXPELS CATARRH

It does more—it builds up the weakened system, regulates the digestion, removes the inflammation, overcomes the poisons of catarrh, and invigorates all over. Forty-four years of success proves its great value, of which thousands gladly testify.

At the regular meeting of the Westerty Board of Trade, the last of the

James M. Pendicton urged an active campaign in favor of a sewerage system for the first drainage district, as defined in a legislative act, and which is to be decided by special nown election next Thursday. He explained that although every known method hat been made to give the matter publicity, there was still misunderstanding of the question at issue by unxpayers in the town. It is plainly specified in the act that the entire cost of construction and maintenance is to be bonne by the property swners in the district to be sewered, and that district is plainly defined. Property owners outside of that district have no financial interest in the matter. The Coy, chairman of the traffic committee, submitted a letter from Superintendent Litchfield of the New London division of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad in response to a request for additional accommodations at the Westerly station. He said if the company had any surplus coin it was needed in the improvement of the traffic system just at this time and could not be spared for station improvements that were not absolutely necessary. He politely asked that the propositions be forgotten for the present.

Dr. John Champlin, Mile Clark, Frank W. Coy and Irvine O. Chester spoke on the question. It was suggested that there could be a parking place for automobiles, without cost, as it would not be necessary to remove the curbing or dacadam the lawn. A fill could be made to the curbing and the lawn used just as it is, and a rope could be used as a fence to limit the public use. As to the sidewalk, the cost is so small that the company ought to build without question. It was voted to request Mr. Coy to continue his correspondence with the superintendent and urge that these improvements be made in recognition of the large volume of business furnished by Westerly.

George L. Stillman, chairman of the committee on agriculture, told of the work of Boy Scouts in the crusade against caterpillar moths on the Post road, Shore road and Watch Hill, and of their almost entire elimination. President Pendleton said an active campaign on the part of the Board of Trade ought to result in favor of the sewerage system by informing those resident outside the proposed sewerage district that it was a matter in which they were not financially interested, and therefore they ought not to vote against the proposition, but to let the voters who were to pay the bills settle the question between themselves. The executive committee was instructed to organize a campaign in favor of the sewerage question.
